CHURCH NOTES

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Will be held at the Christian church on Sunday morning at 10:30 and 12:30. Eadsavor in the evening at 7:30.

R. E. Cole preached his farewell sermon last Sunday. Mr. Cole is called to his home town in Missouri. We are sorry to lose so good a man from among us.

St. Peter's Church.

There will be services in St. Peter's church in this city at 2:00 o'clock in the morning on Christmas day. The midnight service last year was a decided success and the pastor decided to hold services at the church this year about the same time.

St. Peter's Church.

Teachers meeting in the lecture room at 7 o'clock Thursday evening followed by the prayer meeting at 7:30.

Christmas exercises in the basement of the church Christmas eve for the Sunday school, teachers and parents of the Sunday school scholars.

Seven members were taken into the Methodist church last Sunday as a partial result of the meetings held the past two weeks under the leadership of the pastor and Rev. J. B. Kline of Dundee, Ill.

The pastor, Rev. E. J. Aikin, spoke in the morning upon "Church Membership" and took for his text Act II, 47. "The Lord added to the church such as should be saved." He said in part: "Since the earliest times it has been the custom for persons when converted to join the church of Jesus Christ. Some say I have believed my need of it all others. 'Became' with the heart man believeth unto righteousness and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.' The good people converted under the preaching of Peter on the day of Pentecost joined the church. It was not even then a perfect church but those believed it to be the church of the living God and they joined. The church has today many a member but if they are not inside they are worse outside. We are at least trying to do it. If you say you will wait until you find a faultless church you will never join this side of the kingdom and if you should find such a body they would not take you in for you are not faultless. Determine in your mind that a body of believers who follow most nearly the Christ and join yourself to them. It is right for you to remain outside the church it is right for all believers and then we would not have any church organization to maintain Christian worship. If you are a Christian join the church for if you love Christ you will love his followers. You join the church this morning remember your responsibility. You are not in heaven yet. You have only begun the voyage. You have only rounded Sandy Hook you have the voyage yet to make. Be-look remember your responsibility in receiving these into the church and give them a hearty welcome. If you see faults in them remember that you are not perfect. Don't criticize them, the world will do enough of that. Be fathers and mothers to these babes in Christ and let them find the church warm and comfortable that they may grow strong and beautiful characters being good and useful members of the church visible until they shall join the church triumphant.

G. A. R. Encampment at Washington.

Members of the executive committee of the national council of the Grand Army of the Republic, at a meeting at Chicago decided to hold the next annual encampment of the organization at Washington, Atlantic City, N. J. and Denver wanted the meeting but after the claims of the three delegations had been heard the national capital was selected unanimously. Among the things mentioned in favor of that city was that the monument in memory of W. T. Sherman, which is being erected there, will be ready for dedication during the time of the encampment.

A Fortune for Roosevelt.

According to a decision handed down by Justice Lawrence in a suit brought for the purpose of opposing a construction of the will of Cornelius Van Schaak Roosevelt who died in New York in 1887, President Theodore Roosevelt, who is a nephew of the testator, will inherit a fortune between $100,000 and $200,000.

One Use for a Book.

When in India several years ago Winston Spencer Churchill, Lord Randolph Churchill's son, presented a copy of his first book to Gen. Tucker, who was previous to his South African command was to command at Secunderabad. "Do you like it?" Young Churchill inquired of the general. "Haven't read it. Is it meant to read?" "Why yes," "What you'd told me so before. I keep it hanging up in my dressing room and read off a page every morning to wipe my reason on."

DAIRY INTERESTS

IMPORTANT GATHERING OF WORKERS AT FREEPORT

Attractions for the 25th Annual Meeting to Be Held There the Early Part of January.

A location in one of the best dairy sections of Illinois and the country and one of the most progressive towns of the state; a program of unexcelled excellence; creamery machinery and supplies that will show all the latest ideas in those lines; and the most approved of the old ideas; a purse of $300 to be offered to exhibitors of butter and cheese.

These are some of the attractions for the 25th annual convention of the Illinois State Dairyman's association, which is to be held in Freeport, Jan. 7, 8 and 9.

Freeport is reached by the Chicago and North-Western, the Illinois Central and the Chicago Milwaukee and St. Paul roads. Freeport promises to be as good a location as exists in the state for a dairy convention and this fact should not be overlooked by the makers and distributors of dairy and creamery supplies throughout the country.

A place for the exhibiting of machinery will be secured and care will be taken to accommodate all who may want to make exhibits. The program is going to be one of the best ever offered. Among the speakers are Ex-Gov. Hoard, of Wisconsin.

Dairymen will be interested also in hearing J. F. Schlappe, of New York, who had charge of the feeding of the cows in the model dairy at the Pan-American exposition in Buffalo, and De Witt Goodrich, of Wisconsin, who had charge of the milk testing.

Prof. Farrington of Madison, Wis., is to give a lecture illustrated with stereoscopic views, on "The Patron's Cow." Henry Wallace, an authority on the value of skim milk for calves and swine, will deliver an address.

The butter makers and creamerymen of the state should be interested in knowing that they can hear Prof. G. L. McGary, of the Ames, Ia., dairy school, on "Starkers in Buttermaking," and also hear an address by F. A. Leighton, of New Hampshire, on the well known writer on creamery subjects.

The Elgin Board of Trade will again give a gold medal to the butter maker, employed in a factory owned by a member of the board, who scores highest. The other premiums will all be cash. The butter maker who scores highest in the creamery class will receive $20 cash, and the highest in the dairy class $15. Then there is a liberal purse to be divided pro rata among butter makers who score 83 or over. A butter maker who is present at the convention with an exhibit, even though he does not live in Illinois, stands a chance of winning sweepstakes. This should bring exhibitors from Wisconsin and probably from Iowa and Minnesota creameries.

McKinley as Hannah Knew Him.

The January "National Magazine" of Boston will contain the first of a series of articles by Senator Mark Hanna on the career of his friend, the late President William McKinley. No other man was so warmly devoted to McKinley or so closely in touch with him. These articles will embody the Senator's estimate of his friend's character and life work, and give many interesting incidents of his career. They will be most widely read and authoritative contributions on this subject, which is of the profoundest interest to all patriotic Americans.

The National is a first class American News Magazine. Its stories are strong, its pictures of men and women of the day many and timely. Its "Admirals at Washington" unique. Those who are not subscribers can obtain the January number by sending 10 cents in stamps to the W. W. Potter Co., Publishers, 41 West First Street, Boston. Annual subscriptions, covering the entire series, $1.

A Quiet Home Wedding.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Miedendorf, on Wednesday, Dec. 18, 1901, a quiet home wedding of their daughter Mary to Chas. H. Barber, youngest son of Harlow Barber.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. J. Aikin, pastor of the M. E. church of this place, in the presence of a few of the immediate relatives of the bride and groom. Miss Anna Bedrett acting as bridesmaid and Lee Miedendorf as groomsmen.

The gifts were valuable and useful. Mr. and Mrs. Barber will go on to their new home east of Loon Lake where they will be at home to their friends after Jan. 1, 1902. The bride and groom are both well known in the community and the best wishes of the News and their many friends are extended to them.

Judicial Election.

Governor Yates has called an election to be held February 26th to fill the vacancy on the bench of the Seventeenth Judicial Circuit, caused by the death of Judge Thaw. Among those prominently mentioned as probable candidates for the vacant seat are A. B. Frost, of Rockford; E. J. W. of Harvard and Charles White, of Freeport.

THE MOUNTAIN

Importance to the People of the State

The remarkable success of the poultry show recently held in Washington indicates that the interest of the people in general in the line of business is growing. To some folk it may appear rather a matter of appreciation that the interest of a large city should concern themselves so much with poultry, for whether keeping chickens in a city or on a farm, the poultry is a part of the life of the people.

But as a matter of fact, most of the chicken fanciers in any city live out in the suburbs where they can give their pets plenty of room and this is a good thing. The improvement of the poultry industry and other domestic creatures is a part of civilization which ought to be encouraged. There are invasions in modern days which are of dubious importance for they only fill the world with useless and ugly articles. There is no particular profit in making cheap shoes which are not worth the money or in putting Grecian ornaments on a stove door where they ought not to be or in making a horse pine table look like oak or cherry until the paint or veneer wears off. But thoroughbred animals whether fish, deer or fowl are a pleasure to the eye and are of some practical use in the world. Moreover, the employment of raising chickens, rabbits and the like is an excellent one for children for it is absolutely impossible to succeed in this work without paying particular attention to the hygiene, comfort and needs of the animal. The boy who thinks his favorite hantam is the disliking that ever walked in less likely to take interest in more dubious entertainments.

A BOVINE TRAGEDY

Report That Was Made Upon the Case by a Liberator's Official.

Before the days of proper safeguards a good many cattle got in the paths of Michigan railroads, and were killed outright or were so badly injured as to necessitate putting them out of misery. These happenings frequently afforded the owners of the cattle an opportunity to bring suit against the railroad companies, so that the employees were required to be very careful as to the manner of the cow's death, etc. Regular printed reports of such cases had to be turned in by the section master, who was required to fill out blanks stating the probable age of the deceased animal, weight, color, distinguishing marks and disposition of carcass, the animal being sometimes cut up and sold for beef. Naturally it was an "itch" section "schuperintinder" who like Finnigan in his terse report of a wreck "On again, on again, Finnigan" made out the report of a certain bovine tragedy in a characteristic way. Mike guessed pretty well at the age and weight and color of the dead cow, but when he came to the line of disposition of carcass, he scratched his head reflectively. "Sure," he muttered, "he doled aisy anyway." Then he looked at the line he scrawled, "Kind of carcass," Detroit Free Press.

Two Kinds of Justice.

Two Pittsburgers interested in painting met in front of a smart store window down town and fell into conversation regarding the jury that is to pass upon the paintings submitted for exhibition in the coming display at the Carnegie Institute. "There is," said one, "a similarity between the functions of an art jury and those of the twelve men whose duty it is to try defendants indicted for murder."

"Where is the similarity?" asked the other. "Why, both juries decide whether the object of their investigation shall hang." "That is true, but there is also a strong dissimilarity."

"How do you make that out?" "The art jury hangs the best pictures and murder juries hang the worst men."

"I don't know that what you say is always true of an art jury. Painters whose pictures are rejected say not, but perhaps we had better drop the subject." And it was thereupon dropped.—Pittsburg Commercial Gazette.

Has Richter's Criticism.

On one occasion Hans Richter was present at a concert given by a popular composer at which the latter performed a long and not particularly interesting work of his own. When the composition came to an end Richter stood his head in a very low position. "Well," he said, "I too, have written compositions to make a pile of money out of."

Wayward Platitudes.

There is a man in the city who has a habit of saying platitudes. He has a habit of saying platitudes. He has a habit of saying platitudes. He has a habit of saying platitudes.

FROM LOCAL

SCISSOR CUTTING NEIGHBORHOOD

Work on John Allen, 1000 N. 1st St., has commenced. The work is being done by the city engineer, who is cutting the street for the building.

A special town election will be held in the town of Antioch, Dec. 23, for the purpose of submitting to the voters a proposition to borrow $7,000 to build a bridge across the Fox river from John Allen to Fiskdale Bay.

Paulina Schohr, the infant daughter of Hermann Schohr, proprietor of the City hotel at Antioch, in some manner held a piece of meat which had been covered with rough nails and ate a small amount of it. Prompt work by doctors saved the child's life.

Andrew Carnegie has offered to give $100,000 to erect a public library building on the condition that a site to cost $10,000 be purchased and $5,000 be raised each year to maintain the library. Action will be taken by the Council and a number of wealthy residents of Harris are willing to contribute to the fund for the purchase of a site.

A more has been started in Kenosha to secure the erection of a United States Government building and a position is now being circulated among the leading men of the city, which as soon as it is signed will be sent both to Congressmen Cooper and Senator J. V. Quarles asking them to use their influence to have the Government appropriate money for the erection of a suitable government building for Kenosha.

AN EXPENSIVE TITAN

Peanut-Bud, ruler of China, is an expensive titan.

China, possessing the oldest aristocracy, may naturally be expected to furnish the most expensive luxuries. And she certainly does in so far as costly food is concerned. Compared with the peanut-bud of China, such delicacies as diamond tongues or strawberries at Christmas are merely inexpensive trifles. This is a combination of peanut-bud and ginger jelly, is brownish in color, and is to be obtained in small jars. The price is 40 an ounce, more than half its weight in gold—an almost sufficient guaranty that it is eaten very sparingly. Peanut-bud is said to have a flavor for Oriental palates ten times more exquisite than that of other most soups. At the base of the bowl of a peanut is a small, conical formation, usually surmounted by two microscopic leaves. The but is first roasted, then these leaves are carefully examined and if they are necessary to eat a small amount, but when a sufficient number are collected they are put into a mortar and ground into a fine flour, which is afterwards mixed with ginger jelly and rubbed down to a smooth paste.—New York Journal.

Hard Night Work for English.

A teacher in the Dallas county public school has received the following letter: "Sir, Will you in the future give my son easier some to do at night? This is what he has brought home two or three nights back. 12 fore gallons of beer will all thirty pint bottles, how many pint and half bottles will nine gallons of beer all? Well, we tried and could make nothing of it at all, and my boy cried and laughed and said he didn't dare to go back in the morning without doing it. So I had to go and buy a nine gallon keg of beer, which I could all amount to do, and then he went and borrowed a lot of wine and brandy bottles, we all them, and my boy put the number down for an answer. I don't know whether it is right or not as we sold some while doing it. P. S. Please let the next some be in water as I am not able to buy more here." Mobile Daily Register.

Old Age Pensions in France.

The proposed law for old age pensions meets with much opposition. France, on the grounds of publication of which the pension is a short story, beyond the average generally known. When for example, a man's brother, who was a doctor from Chicago, died of the cholera, he was already on his way to Antioch, having been summoned to attend a meeting of young friends who were to raise money to make good the shortage.

Young's beautiful wife was prostrated by the exposure and the tragic ending of her husband without even a farewell message.

William the Conqueror, like the other Normans of his time, shaved his face clean. The Normans also had a fashion of partially shaving the head, which made the Saxons just before the Hastings battle imagine they were about to fight an army of monks.

On the morning of the 11th of December, 1861, the steamer "Herald" left New York for England, with 1,691 soldiers and 100 tons of provisions, and the greatest array of arms and accoutrements ever sent to the aid of a beleaguered city. After a long and stormy voyage, she arrived at Liverpool on the 17th of the following month. The four killed and wounded soldiers were buried on board, and the rest of the crew and passengers were landed at the company about a week. At which time, and on which day, we commenced our labor, and the first thing we did was to spread out our arms and accoutrements, and to examine them, and to see if they were in good order. We found that the arms were in good order, and that the accoutrements were in good order. We then proceeded to load the arms and accoutrements on board the "Herald," and to send her on her way to England. There is no record of any special religious service during the week of fasting. On February 22, in 1630, the first public thanksgiving was held in Boston by the Bay State colony in gratitude for the safe arrival of the Pilgrims and the Indians. Neither china nor silverware was plentiful in early America, although earthenware is mentioned in early inventories. The table linens consisted largely of wood-slatenapkins. The time when America was settled was the era when pewter was a sort of "furniture" of the house and a relic of "freak" plates to every colonial housekeeper. A universal table furnisher was the pottery and earthenware dealer.

Dewey, H. Credit

NAVAL COURT

Case in for Hon. Discharge and Last Appeal

Formal Finding of Guilt Is Against the Rear Admiral, but Practically Every Point Is Pleaded

The findings of the court of inquiry were made public today in the Navy Department in Washington. Rear Admiral Schley was found guilty of the precept by a majority of the court, but coupled with this finding condemnation is a remarkable individuality by Admiral G. Dewey, in which the hero of Manila declares that Schley was in sole command at Santiago and that he is entitled to the glory of that splendid victory.

Admiral Dewey, however, coincides with the court in the belief that many things before the battle he was blameable, but he differs with the court on a number of points.

Technically speaking, the court is officially condemning a naval officer, but they then recommend that owing to the fact that Schley has elapsed there should be no further proceedings in the matter. This is no appeal from the finding of guilt, and Rear Admiral Schley must content to let it stand as it is so far as the Navy Department is concerned.

Although the court's findings are adverse to Admiral Schley, they have taken much comfort from the fact that the opinion expressed by Admiral Dewey.

The court has reached the conclusion which most naval officers and students of the case had expected to reach—namely, that while in independent command Commodore Schley's conduct was disappointing to the government and to his superiors, but that in the title of Santiago he was in a position of opportunity to alone for whatever mistakes he may previously have made.

The findings of the court are as follows:

1. That Commodore (now Rear) Schley should have proceeded to the most direct to Cienfuegos.
2. That he should have made a direct effort to learn if the Spanish squadron was in that port.
3. That he should have proceeded with all dispatch to Santiago and made a direct effort to learn if the Spanish squadron was in that port.
4. That he should not have ordered his squadron for the Eagle (gunboat).
5. That he should not have made a direct effort to learn if the Spanish squadron was in that port.
6. That he should have promptly ordered the orders of the department to go to Santiago.
7. That the flying squadron had a supply of coal, enough to blockade an active to six days, that to fill all the batteries would have required 2,700 tons, that 4,500 tons in his collars and in conditions of wind, sea and weather was favorable to coaling from a coaling.
8. That Commodore Schley made an effort to ascertain if the Spanish squadron was in Santiago, and left that point entirely unguarded for twenty-three hours, and guarded only by scouts for twenty-five hours more.
9. That he did not do his utmost to destroy the fleet.
10. That the turn of the Brooklyn in the battle, though made to escape, was generous proximity to the enemy, did cause the Brooklyn to lose distance and position and did cause the Texas to stop and back to avoid collision.
11. That Admiral Schley did injustice to Lieutenant Commander Hodgson in not publishing all the correspondence between them.
12. That Commodore Schley's conduct in connection with the events of the Santiago campaign was characterized by "vacillation, dilatoriness and lack of enterprise."
13. That his official reports "were inaccurate and misleading."
14. That "his conduct in the battle was self-possessed, and he encouraged in his own person his subordinate officers and men to fight courageously."
15. That in his individual statement, says Commodore Schley did not from Key West to Cienfuegos with all possible dispatch, having in view the saying of coal; that he did maintain an effective blockade there, and later at Santiago; that he could not have made better speed to Santiago and kept his squadron as a unit; and finally, that he was in command in the battle and entitled to the credit of the victory.

Told in a Few Lines.

Arthur Gleason, the well-known author, died in New York. He was formerly a resident of Independence, Mo., and was editor of the Smart Set, a monthly magazine, at the time of his death.

thrilling descent on the fire escape of Mrs. Bonine in the dead hours of the night, the bloody imprints on the window sill and window curtain have been found so recently that they are fresh in the public mind.

The trial lasted almost four weeks. District Attorney Gould closed the case in a speech of one hour and forty-one minutes. Judge Anderson occupied forty-three minutes in reading his charge to the jury, and the panel deliberated over four hours.

Mrs. Bonine remained in the cellroom while the jury was deliberating. She was aided there by her husband, the two boys, her two sisters, one or two men relatives, and Messrs. Douglas and Fulton, her counsel. All remained with her until Deputy Marshal Robinson sent word to the officer in charge to bring Mrs. Bonine into court to hear the verdict.

As she entered the court room her face betrayed her first anxiety, but she controlled that emotion almost as soon as it appeared. When the verdict had been recorded Judge Anderson informed the defendant that she was at liberty and ordered the court adjourned.

SIAM'S KING.

He May Come to America to Make

Some day next summer, if the present program is carried out, there will sail into the harbor at San Francisco a luxuriously equipped yacht and from it there will step ashore King Chulalongkorn of Siam and his queen.

For some years there have been persistent rumors that the King intended visiting America, but the first positive information that he has any such thing in mind now comes through.

Hamilton King of the United States minister at Bangkok, in Siam. He has been informed through Prince Devawongse of the King's desire. The oriental potentate is anxious to learn how the Americans would regard a visit from him.

Since the recent fighting in China, Siam has been more than ever interested in us, and the King is anxious to learn something about our commercial and industrial methods. He has observed the influence which we have had upon Japan, and believes that a more intimate acquaintance with Americans will prove of benefit to his own country. The King could depend upon a warm welcome from the American people.

The full name of his royal highness is King Somdet Phra Paramendit Maha Chulalongkorn Rajakumara Chulachulalongkornrajavidyalaya.

G. R. GOES TO WASHINGTON.

Next National Encampment Will Be Held at Washington.

The next annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic will be held in Washington. This was decided by the executive committee of the national council of administration, which met in Chicago.

Washington, Denver and Atlantic City were rivals for the coveted honor of entertaining the heroes of the war of the rebellion. Delegations representing various cities were presented to the committee, after which an informal ballot was taken, the vote standing: Denver, 5; Washington, 3; and Atlantic City, 2. On the first formal ballot Denver and Washington each received four votes and Atlantic City two. Atlantic City withdrew from the contest at this stage, and the vote was a tie between Denver and Washington, remaining thus without a break for the next three ballots, when Washington was selected unanimously.

It is said that a new pool of steel plate manufacturers has been formed in New York.

An Apology

The Green Bag, an English legal journal, tells the following story. On one occasion a junior counsel on their lordships, giving judgment against his client, exclaimed that he was surprised at their decision. This was construed into a contempt of court and the young barister was ordered to attend at the bar next morning. Fearful of the consequences, he consulted his friend, John Scott (afterward Lord Eldon), who told him to be perfectly at ease, for he would apologize for him in a way that would avert any unpleasant result. Accordingly, when the name of the delinquent was called, Scott rose and coolly addressed the judges: "I am very sorry, my lords," he said, "that my young friend has so far forgotten himself as to treat your lordships with disrespect; he is extremely penitent, and you will kindly ascribe his unintentional insult to his ignorance. You must see at once that it did originate in that. He said he was surprised at the decision of your lordships.
Now, if he had not been ignorant of what takes place in this court every day—had he known you but half so long as I have done—he would not be surprised at anything you did."

Couldn't Stand a Show

When Mr. John Tunnell, the famous cartoonist, was asked why he had never married he replied: "Well, if I had married a girl she would always have wanted to be going about all over the place and that would not have served me while on the other hand I had married an elderly woman she would have worn a bonnet and I could not have stood it."

SEVERE TESTS FOR STEEL

Various Kinds of the Metal That Require Different Treatments.

It is a popular idea that steel is a hard, polished metal like a dagger or a razor and capable of carrying a cutting edge, but there are steels of various kinds that do not possess the qualities mentioned. Structural steel, for example, such as beams, girders and rough-rolled bars, generally has a much higher tensile strength, elasticity and tenacity than iron, and yet, in physical constitution and external appearance it differs but slightly from it. Of the two bars, one iron and the other steel, put through the same rolls at the same time, not even an expert could distinguish one from the other if they were laid side by side. Moreover, careful analysis fails to discover the line of actual departure between steel and iron in the lower grades of each metal or where the metal commences to be steel, so to speak, and stops being iron. But as between the two metals, iron and steel, there is vast difference in their endurance and ability to stand severe work, and modern engineers have a very great advantage over their predecessors of half a century ago in the possession of it. In modern open-hearted and other process steels the amount of fatigue or continuous resistance to crucial strains of long duration which they will endure is simply astonishing—not laboratory or test machine strains, but the downright pounding and flogging of daily work, which is far more serious than any testing machine can deliver. This last sets up a certain stress in a straight line, gradually increasing up to failure under it, but the duty imposed upon steel by daily work is a high-speed engine, for example, is not only to resist tensile strains, but torsional and traverse burdens at one and the same time.

Consolation of Scholastic

A famous English scholar, whose hobby was the derivation of words, had occasion to store his furniture while proceeding to the continent in quest of the origin of the term "Juggling." During his researches in Berlin he received from the warehouse company the following letter: "Sir: We have the honor to inform you that the mattress you sent to our store had the moth in it. Since the epidemic would expose the goods of other clients to injury, we have caused your mattress to be destroyed." The scholar replied: "Dear Sir: My mattress may be as you say, but the moth in it, but I am confident, had an 'e' in it also."

INDIAN PRAIRIE DOGHUNTS.

The Little Animals Deemed a Delicacy Dish by Navajos.

The Navajo Indian, while he cannot be prevailed upon to eat a rabbit, is exceedingly fond of fat prairie dogs, and has resorted to many ingenious methods for trapping his coveted chinty. When the animal ventures from his bedroom, deep under ground, he sees a familiar image looking him at the front door, and he hurries out to confront the impudent intruder when he is panned to the ground with an arrow. But the most effective method is what the Indians call the rain hunt. As soon as the steady downpour of summer rains begins every Navajo who can walk repairs to the prairie dog village with hoes, sharp sticks or any digging implement. With these they hollow out trenches that will lead the storm water into as many burrows as possible. Soon a little stream is pouring down each small home, and the inmate, much disturbed, pops out to see what the water can do. Many of the animals remain under ground until they are drowned, and their bodies float to the surface. After such a hunt, in which many pounds of prairie dogs are generally secured, there is a feast for many days in the Navajo huts.

Saw Death Near

"It often made my heart ache," writes L. C. Overstreet, of Elgin, Tenn., "to hear my wife cough until it seemed her weak and sore lungs would collapse. Good doctors said she was so far gone with consumption that no medicine or earthly help could save her, but a friend recommended Dr.

Saved His Life.

"I wish to say that I feel I owe my life to Kodol Dyspepsia Cure," writes H. G.
Christenson of Hayfield, Minn. "For three years I was troubled with dyspepsia so I could hold nothing on my stomach.
Many times I would be unable to retain a morsel of food. Finally I was confined to my bed. Doctors said I could not live.
I read one of your advertisements on Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and thought it in my case and commenced its use. I began to improve from the first bottle. Now I am cured and recommend it to all." Digests your food.
Cures all stomach troubles. W. T. Hill.

Came to Do Not Mind the Weather.

The native camels of Siberia are a source of constant wonder to travelers. On the Mongolian plateau, for instance, the thermometer often registers a temperature of 40 degrees below zero, but the camels do not mind it at all, walking about as blithely as if the weather were as balmy as spring. On the other hand, the temperature on the Gobi desert in summer is sometimes 140 degrees above zero, and the beasts mind that heat just as little as they do the extreme cold.

A Woman's Awful Peril.

"There is only one chance to save your life and that is through an operation" were the startling words I heard by Mrs. I. B. Hunt, of Lime Ridge, Wis., from her doctor after he had vainly tried to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. Gall stones had formed and the constantly grew worse. Then she began to use Electric Bitters which wholly cured her.
It is a wonderful stomach, liver and kidney remedy. Cures dyspepsia, loss of appetite, Try it. Only 50c. Guaranteed. For sale by W. T. Hill.

Removing Hairs in Elevators.

A crusade has been begun in Washington against the southern custom of men removing their hats while riding in elevators. If there are any women passengers. Notices have been posted in the corridors of several large office buildings to the effect that good taste does not require gentlemen to remove their hats in the presence of ladies who may be using the elevator. The reason for the crusade is said to be altogether hygienic.

Tax Upon Cyclists.

The handsome sum of nearly 5,500, 000 francs has been brought into the treasury of the French republic by the tax upon the cyclists during the year 1900. The tax was first imposed in the year 1894, and was paid by 203,038 persons. In 1895 it was levied upon 238, 084, in 1896 upon 329,816, in 1897 upon 408,806, in 1898 upon 484,414, and in 1899 upon nearly double that number—829,852. The tax upon motor carriages in 1900 was paid by 2,397 persons.

About Carl Schurz

A German friend having invited Carl Schurz to spend the remainder of his life in southern California, Mr.
Schurz replied gratefully, but says the literary projects he has on hand preclude the idea of his giving himself up to the enjoyment of nature. Mr.
Schurz, by the way, was among the guests at a dinner given to the staff of the New York Evening Post on its one hundredth anniversary. In his speech he paid the paper the high compliment by saying: "It is not even afraid of its friends."

An Evangelist's Story.

"I suffered for years with a bronchial or lung trouble and tried various remedies but did not obtain permanent relief until I commenced using One Minute Cough Cure," writes Rev. James Kirkman, evangelist of Belle River, Ill. "I have no hesitation in recommending it to all sufferers from annual plagues of them. There is no country, probably, in which so many useless reports are written and so few read. In one province the chief business of the local government consists in dunning its officers for statistics and reports, and in compiling from them volumes for the delusion of the supreme government. More than one-half of the time and energy of every civil officer is taken up in writing.—Fortnightly Review.

Oldest City's New Railroad.

Damascus, the oldest city in the world, will soon have in its streets a track of a railroad, on which the new modern methods will prevail. For more than 4,000 years the city got up and down without means of transportation although it was enterprising enough to find a place in the Bible and the world's history. Wheat has wrought change in Damascus now. Its annual output of the cereal is 10,000,000 bushels. A boom town in the West was never more lively than this relic of the dead past.

Health and Beauty.

A poor complexion is usually the result of a torpid liver or irregular action of the bowels. Unless nature's refuse is carried off it will surely cause impure blood. Pimples, boils and other eruptions follow.
This is nature's method of throwing off the poisons which the bowels fail to remove.
DeWitt's Little Early Risers are world famous for remedying this condition.
They stimulate the liver and promote regular and healthy action of the bowels but never cause griping, cramps or distress.
Safe pills. W. T. Hill.

Heavy Horses Haul Beer.

Horses that are employed in hauling beer wagons in New York weigh from 1,500 to 2,100 pounds and cost an average of $400 each. The most desirable size weighs about 1,750 to 1,800 pounds.
The breed, descended from the original large Black Horse family of Europe, is said to be a cross between the Percheron, Clydesdale, Boltonaise, Belgian, Suffolk Punch and Shire horses, large numbers of which the United States used to import.

Of Benefit to You.

D. S. Mitchell, Falford, Md. "During a long illness I was troubled with bed sores, was advised to try DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve and did so with wonderful results.
I was perfectly cured. It is the best salve on the market. Sure cure for piles, sore burns, Bowers of corns, etc. W. T. Hill

Ascribed by Her Physician.

Nosha Falls, Kans., Nov. 13, 1900.
Pep-Syrup Co., Monticello, Ill.
I Sirs: For almost fifteen years I suffered from indigestion and last winter about I would die, when my physician, Dr. J. L. Lawrence of this place, advised me to try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.
I did, and two bottles cured me. It nearly relieved me, but it cured me so I had not been troubled since. any one would offer me $500 for the Syrup Pepsin has done me. I would think of taking it. No one can take a medicine without being convinced of more than wonderful cures, (recommend to all my friends as a laxative and much remedy.
Yours with gratitude, Mrs. J. Morgan.

Tells the Land of Reports.

India is the land of reports. There is a monthly, quarterly, half-yearly annual plague of them. There is no country, probably, in which so many
useless reports are written and so few
read. In one province the chief business of the local government consists
in dunning its officers for statistics
and reports, and in compiling from
them volumes for the delusion of
the supreme government. More than one-half of the time and energy of
every civil officer is taken up in writing.—Fortnightly Review.

well's Syrup Pepsin. If interested, write

British "Conscience Money."

"Conscience money" in Great Britain now amounts to thousands of pounds annually. The first sum noticed was on March 30, 1789, when £360 was carried to the public account in consequence of a note received by the Chancellor, "from a man with troubled soul implored him," "as an honest man," to consider the money the property of the nation, and to be as just as to apply it to the use of the state in such manner that the nation may not suffer by its having been detained, and thus to ease the conscience of an honest man."
